

Abstract

The topic of this thesis is the Miličův House, its beginnings, functioning, and further activities connected to this house, which served as a shelter for children in need. This thesis also presents the life of Přemysl Pitter, the man who played the key role in establishing this house. The objective of this thesis is to portray the situation of education at the Miličův House during the World War I & II as well as to show the inspiring life of Přemysl Pitter. The Miličův House isn't, however, the only great accomplishment of Mr. Pitter therefore this piece focuses on his other successful projects such as the infirmary in Mýto u Rokycan and Action Zámky. All these institutions not only improved, but also saved lives of numerous children and adults. Furthermore, this thesis includes accounts of his colleagues and friends. The end of this thesis presents one of the strong stories portraying the life at the Miličův House and the story of Přemysl Pitter.
