

Abstrakt anglicky Jewish community in Strakonice

This bachelor's thesis focuses on the fate and welfare of the Jewish community of the city of Strakonice. In the first part is a brief presentation of Strakonice city and the introduction of the Jewish community in the Czech Republic. Here is described the activity of the local Jewish community and the livelihood of the Jewish population. In Strakonice these inhabitants excelled especially in the textile sector and celebrated their success abroad as well. In the second part are recorded four stories of Jewish people. The main objective is to show the stories of witnesses who experienced the World War II period and each one of them had a different faith.

Key words: Strakonice, Jewish community, textile sector, faith