

Abstract

In my rigorosum thesis, I dealt with basic questions of insurance liability for damage caused by vehicles. Individual chapters of my work conform to the basic framework of insurance liability for damage caused by vehicles.

In the end, I commented the important breakthrough in that topic which is the effectiveness of the Civil Code on 1 January 2014 which will bring significant changes. In this context gets more space case law, documents and unconditional solutions of individuals steps or issues in the context of insurance of liability for damage caused by vehicles.
