

Abstrakt:

This bachelor thesis deals with the origin and changes of the song Where Is My Home? written by Škroup and Tyl which became a national anthem. Its musical and textual form is interpreted with concern to its historical contexts. The thesis follows the fate of the song till nowadays and it deals with its contemporary paraphrases as well. The question for reasons that made Where Is My Home? the national anthem is being put continuously thorough the text. It is therefore necessary to pay our attention to different sources of inspiration for both authors.
