

Based on available primary sources, the thesis is monitoring the complete known history of the school and education in Slivenec. Certain periods of history are being discussed in more detail, especially when substantial changes happened in the village (e.g. WWI and WWII). Another important focus are the lives and work of some of the teachers who, at their time, were important characters both in school and village life.