

This thesis deals with the history of education in Čakovice and its surroundings. This work describes the establishment of schools, various historical periods, what happened in which historical period. The aim of the work is to present the history of education in Čakovice and its surroundings, to give an idea about how schools were founded in the past, about the foundation of schools in Čakovice and its surroundings, about the historical development until today, to compare different historical periods and the development. Methods: interviews, extracts from chronicles, books, internet.