

Abstract

In this thesis I will describe the issue of orthotic and prosthetic solutions for dogs. I will focus on the differences between human and canine anatomy, further on indications for prosthetics, orthotics or wheelchairs and specifics of adaptive devices in the field of orthotics and prosthetics used in veterinary care. Besides I will describe possible complications when using the devices and following physical rehabilitation.

Keywords

Orthotics, prosthetics, canis, amputation, rehabilitation, veterinaire