

ABSTRACT

The work is focused on the issue of EU funds in the Czech educational system within the historical development of drawing to contemporary ways of obtaining funds that enter into the educational system. It provides an overview of the problem areas in the disbursement of funds of the European Union from the perspective of the beneficiaries. The study also addressed in detail the issue of the Operational Programme Education for Competitiveness, which had a great impact on the education system in the Czech Republic.

The aim of this thesis in the theoretical part is to describe a comprehensive picture about the issue and provide relevant information for the understanding of specific areas of disbursement EU funds. In the practical part there are mainly presents the results of a questionnaire survey which identified problem areas when funds absorption Operational Programme Education for Competitiveness.

KEYWORDS

European Union, operational program, project, financing, education