

Abstract

The theme of the thesis is the issue of bullying in schools. The thesis is divided into theoretical and practical part, the theoretical part deals with definitions of bullying, aggression, introduction to theory of aggression and setting bullying into the social context. In this part there will also be introduced methodological ways of obtaining data for bullying research and theoretical definition of bullying relations between aspects of school environment and bullying.

In the practical part will be shown the data analysis of The survey of urban youth in 2015, which will map the relations between bullying and specific aspects of the school environment.

Keywords: bullying, aggression, the victim, school environment