

My bachelor thesis elaborates views on methods of reclamation and restoration of limestone dumps .

In brief , I pointed out the positives and negatives of different methods used.

I mentioned legislation, the reserve fund and the Waste Act, further formation of limestone, on the practical exploitation and mining.

The work is also part of the possible variables affecting the succession to the site and examples of the most disturbovaných places to rebuild .