

Summary:

- Title: Knowledge of various social groups in the history of the Ice Hockey World Championship held in the Czech republic and Czechoslovakia
- Objective: The goal of the bachelor thesis is search, gather and evaluate the informations about organizing all world championships organize in our republic. In the same time make a survey on a selected sample of respondents and analyze, evaluate results.
- Methods: In this bachelor thesis is used method of searching information in electronic database, searching and studying professional literature and interviews with choosed players, coaches and participants of world championship. Another method used in thesis is questionnaire survey consisting of eight questions, examined on seventy respondents divided by gender, age and focus.
- Keywords: ice hockey, history, world championship, personalities, survey