

Abstract

Title: Application meteorology and historical comparison between weather(meteorological) conditions for yachting and water sports

Objectives: To be making maps about windsurfing sports within specific locations. Prove or disprove scientific research about weather conditions changing from 1980 to 2014 years. It's about yachting and water sports at the same locations.

Methods: Diploma is descriptive and analytic article. There are methods like research, selections of sources, analysis of information and final synthesis everything knowledge.

Results: Description four water ponds for water sports and analytic work with database about weather conditions in the studying locations.

Keywords: Meteorology, wind, spot, water sport, yachting.