

Work is about Mother Teresa and her contribution to social work. The first part deals with the life of Mother Teresa, from childhood through adolescence to her death and beatification. The second part is devoted to spiritual inspiration from which Mother Teresa took her beliefs about what she was doing. It is also described her spiritual life and the topic of the inner darkness of Mother Teresa. This chapter talks about the mystical experiences with God, so. Dark nights. Another issue is the Congregation of the Missionaries of Charity itself and its work for the poor, sick and suffering. It also describes the growth of the congregation and how it was spreading to other countries. The conclusion summarizes the impact of Mother Teresa in social work and social activities of other people.