

Abstrakt

The bachelor thesis deals with the issue of education people with mild disability.

The theoretical part introduces the reader to the mental disability, mental retardation, Down syndrom, preschool, elementary, secondary education people with mental disability.

The practical part deals casuistries people with mild disability targeted their education.