

The presented diploma thesis "Holy and unholy homeless" deals with finding the inspiration for social work with individuals - the homeless people, in the emerging phenomenon of Christian monasticism. The hypothesis of the diploma thesis, the existence of the possibility of drawing lessons for today's social work, confirms in the end in three areas and inspiring circuits.