The goal of this work is to implement an internet and intranet information system for registering lectors and students in an educational agency, together with their abilities, requirements, time possibilities etc. The system allows all the administrator, lectors and students to enter data. The entered data are liable to validation by the administrator. The system is able to partly automate administrator's tasks within pairing of lectors and students according to the entered information.