

Abstract

The author's aim is to describe Bohemian Hunting Order of the Saint Hubert and the personality of its founder František Antonín Count Sporek. Further attention will be paid to the character of Saint Hubert, with emphasis on Saint Hubert legend and the representation of this saint in visual art. Master's thesis will be closed by the historical story of Order regulation and connected emblematic.