

The thesis „Artefiletics with ADHD children“ is informing the reader about possibilities of artefiletics work with hyperactivity and attention deficit disorder children. This work is dedicated to artefiletics discipline suitable for activity with ADHD children and it describes its specifics. According to the results, it is possible to use artefiletics as a means of motivation and inspiration for personality development of ADHD children.