

Abstract

The diploma thesis “Own literary work with a commentary” consists of, apart from the own literary work, a reflexion on this work, reviews (a review of a nursery school teacher, a secondary school teacher, a review of a regular reader, a review of an author of books for children), response to the reviews, partial conclusions with a feedback and the conclusion. The diploma thesis emphasizes the importance of own author's experience, mainly for the teachers who work with literature in the groups of children. It demonstrates the benefits of literary creative teacher's work for the children's reading experience.

In the context, the thesis deals with the development of reading in nursery school, elementary school and family.

The diploma thesis describes the features of original author's poetics. Simultaneously, based on the reviews, the author's work is included into the genre of fairy tales.

Key words

Own literary work, reflexion on own work, own author's experience, children's literature, reading development, author's poetics.