

ANNOTATION

This work deals with the subject of music therapy in a special kindergarten for the children with combined disabilities. In the theoretical part it clarifies the concept and principle of music therapy and characterizes the types of disabilities that occur at researched clients. As a research method were used observation and interviews with three music therapists from the institution.

KEYWORDS

Music therapy, preschool education, special pedagogy, group music therapy, individual music therapy, professional assistance.