

Abstract

This diploma thesis describes Opportunities of Social Work in paliative care in Slovak republic and compares selected aspects with Czech republic. Main goal of this work was describe system of paliative care in Slovak republic and compare selected aspekts with Czech republic. Empirical part of this work is focused on blind spaces in paliative care and system of paliative care which was mapped especially by literature and ilustrative intriview with one respondent. Work poits to the need to provide social servoces in paliative care.