

Abstract

This bachelor thesis describes the support of parents of premature babies. The aim is to learn about the parent's awareness of nonprofit organizations and how those organizations have helped them in their situation. Also what are the most common problems the parents of premature babies face. An anonymous questionnaire was chosen as method for detecting these problems.

Key words:

premature birth, premature baby, support of parents, nonprofit organizations