

In my diploma páper, I'm going to deal with history and the present stage of practical schools in Czech Republic. The aim of my work is to point out the importance of existence of high education for people with medium grave mental retardation and to outline practical schools development and their stánce in Czech educational systém.