

The Graduation paper is directed on options of education child with multiple disability in school years.

The first chapter is given the characteristic of child in school years, define multiple disability and their effects on child's individuality. The second chapter deals with commutation, specifications with child with multiple disability and options of education. The third chapter mentions other aspects in education. The practical chapter contains detail kasuisticof child with multiple disability with adverse prognose on development. Their is also educational evaluation and individual pian of education. The question of child's death.