

The title of this diploma thesis is „ Interior Specificity of The Family Centre for Children with Various Kinds of Disability". Diploma thesis deal with specificity and oddities being found at interior of family centers. In addition I focus on effectiveness of arrangements set up for preschoolers who are visually, mentally and physically handicapped. I deal with colors in interior, toys and interior supplements. Then I concern on architectural oddities and requirements, which belong to specific regulation associated to demands of handicapped people.