

Thesis „What kindergarten can do for a smooth transition of children from kindergarten to the first class of elementary school“ deals with transition of children from kindergarten to the elementary school problems. The intention of this work is find out the opinion of parents and teachers in regard to some specific terms (school maturity, school readiness, key competencies). There is also intention to find out if exists and how effective is the cooperation between these institutions in this thesis.