

Abstract

This bachelor's thesis aims to translate a part of the French book La mer expliquée à nos petits-enfants by Hubert Reeves and Yves Lancelot and also to provide an annotation constituted by a source text analysis, a description of the translation method, a typology of translation problems, their solutions and a typology of translation shifts.